

ARRESTS MADE IN PHILADELPHIA BANK COLLAPSE

Promoter, Segal, Treasurers North and Collingwood Prisoners.

OTHERS WILL GO TO JAIL

Directors of Real Estate Trust Company in Panic Pledge $3,500,000.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—Adolph Segal, the promoter whose borrowings wrecked the Real Estate Trust Company; William F. North, treasurer, and Marshall S. Collingwood, assistant treasurer of the defunct company, were arrested to-day and gave bail for their appearance in court.

The warrants for the arrest of the three men were issued by Magistrate William S. Kochersperger after which the District Attorney announced that the accused had waived the formal service of the warrants and that they would enter bail.

Segal's bail was fixed at $25,000 and North and Collingwood at $10,000 each. This was immediately furnished.

The charges made are conspiracy, embezzlement and false returns to the State Banking Department. The latter charge will not be brought against Segal, as he had no official connection with the company.

The affidavits accompanying the warrants were sworn to by Walter C. Browning, a depositor and creditor of the Real Estate Trust Company. They aver that Segal, North and Collingwood, with Frank K. Hipple, the president of the company, who committed suicide, and with other defunct persons defrauded the trust company "out of many millions of dollars," and that they fraudulently applied the money to their own use.

It is further charged that Segal was an abettor to the embezzlement of the many millions of dollars, and that North committed perjury in knowingly having furnished to the Commissioner of Banking of Pennsylvania false reports of the value of the company's assets, resources and liabilities. Collingwood and North are also accused of having received money from depositors after they knew the company was insolvent.

Treasurer North arrived at the Trust Company building shortly before 10 o'clock this morning. He was accompanied from his home to the office by a friend who went on their bond. Segal and Collingwood went from their homes to the Magistrate's court, where they were arraigned.

Other arrests are expected and detectives are watching the movements of nearly every man who is suspected of knowing the condition of the Real Estate Trust Company before its President, Frank K. Hipple, shot and killed himself.

Directors Pledge Money.

In what one of them described as a panic of fear all of the directors of the concern held a secret meeting last night and pledged themselves to raise $3,500,000 from their private resources.

Receiver George H. Karpis suggested to the directors a plan by which, with this subscription, the bank could be saved. He is of the opinion that little trouble will be experienced in raising a similar amount from the securities available in the bank and those so recovered, and with the $7,000,000 the company can organize and continue business.

By this proposition the directors believe they can avoid arrest and prosecution, and are to-day hustling among the money houses to obtain cash loans on their private securities.

Horace Hill, the aged auditor of the Real Estate Trust Company, also made a complete statement to the District Attorney in which he admits that he knew of the crooked work going on in the bank for four years. He repeatedly went to President Hipple and told him the company could not carry such securities as those on which big loans were made.

When he went to Hipple a year and a half ago to protest against paper and watered stock he was told that he was to let it pass, that he, Hipple, would be responsible, and that if any trouble came he would see that the aged auditor was "well taken care of."

Witness for the State.

Hill is a pathetic figure. He is a physical wreck and was hardly able to finish his examination. He will be used as a most valuable witness by the State in prosecuting the three men whose arrests were ordered to-day.

BROOKLYN BANDIT NOT CAPTURED YET

Citizens Indignant at Police for Delay in Hunting Robber Who Shot Citizen Twice and Then Escaped.

While the police squabble about jurisdiction and try to evade responsibility, the chances grow beautifully less for the capture of the footpad who held the city at ransom.

The robber, after again ordering Saum to stop and give up his valuables, then fired twice, the bullets taking effect in his victim's shoulder and arm.

Bandit Lost in Brush.

Saum, despite the pain, started to run and shouted loudly for the police. Three of the four special policemen fired by the New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford roads and had found that absolutely no precautions were taken looking to the safety of the men.

"If they can see a train coming," he added, "they can run out of the way. Otherwise they must forfeit their lives."

Pending decision on the part of the District Attorney a summons will be issued to-morrow for the general superintendent of the road.

WILL SUE THIRD SECRET HUSBAND FOR A DIVORCE.

Brown again begged my forgiveness and said he would never again offend me. So I gave in, and Mr. Brown returned to his home.

"Everything went lovely until last Friday, when I was riding down Broadway, and I saw a man in a dark suit, who I knew as the same man, heavily veiled in another automobile. He does not live in New York, and I know he could not be here for no good purpose. So I ordered my chauffeur to follow her machine."

"She drove to the Eighteenth street station of the subway and I followed her. I saw her get out of the car and meet my husband, who was waiting for her."

Then Came a "Scrap."

"I attacked the woman and she escaped to the street. I rose off my feet and struck her several times. My husband escaped by jumping on a train while I chased the woman."

In a statement made by Brown to-day he says he had drawn up an agreement, which his wife was to sign, whereby she was to consent to the annulment of the marriage and was to receive a certain sum and go to Europe, where she was to remain.

"Such agreement has been proposed to me. I did not even know that my husband proposed such a step and I have certainly never been approached on it," said Mrs. Brown.

"I have made all necessary arrangements since the discovery of Friday and to-day I am to place all this evidence in the hands of my attorney, who will draw up the papers at once," she said.

Mrs. Brown's first husband was Stephen Winchester Ballou, of the old Revolutionary family. She married him in 1880, when he was a young man in New York who met and was secretly married to her. Her husband was a gambler and was not commonly known until his death, when she claimed a widow's pension from the estate. To-day she told something new about this affair.

"Mr. Watrous had made a will," she said, "which was witnessed by the doctors at Bellevue and which left me $20,000. But his relatives and all his papers and later the will was not found. I sued and obtained $10,000."

DAUGHTER GETS NOTHING.

The will of the late William Edgar Marshall, the famous artist, died this afternoon, bequeathing the entire property to the widow, Florence Garrison Marshall, and ignores the daughter, Mrs. Lillian Swift, of No. 113 West Ninety-fourth street.

Mr. Odell was asked if he thought the language of Mr. Hughes indicated that he was a feeble-minded man. "I've got nothing to say as to that," said he.

That Mr. Hughes and others were still predicting the renomination of Gov. Hughes, Mr. Odell retorted, "I don't think he will be running except in his mind. Was the answer."

GERMAN YACHTS BADLY BEATEN BY YANKEE FARS

All Three American Boats Finish Before the Emperor's Cup-Hunters.

MAJESTICHEAD, Mass., Sept. 5.—The German challenge were again defeated to-day in the second race for the Roosevelt cup contest, the race going to the Vini, owned by Commodore Trencher L. Park, of the American Yacht Club, of New York. The American yacht Caramba was second and the American Auk, the winner of Monday's race, was third.

The three German boats, led by the Wannsee, brought up in the rear, the Wannsee being about three and a half minutes behind the Vini. The race was sailed in a breeze which was very light at the start, but increased steadily.

The official time was as follows:

Yacht	Time
Vini	1:13:34
Caramba	1:14:48
Auk	1:17:14
Wannsee	1:22:24

The official time of the first round, sailed by the Stone wireless, was: Caramba, 1:27:15; Auk, 1:28:50; Vini, 1:28:30; Wannsee, 1:33:40; Gloucester, 1:35:40; Thyl, 1:36:02.

The Vini beat out the fleet to the windward mark on the second time around. The Auk was second and the Caramba third.

The two German boats, Wannsee and Gloucester, were about three minutes behind the American boats at the windward mark.

PLAYED WILD WEST IN THE CITY HORSE

Boys Had Fun with Animal Deserted by White Wings Driver.

Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner Gibson was called up on the telephone this afternoon and informed that several boys were playing "Wild West" with a Street Cleaning Department horse at Sixty-sixth street and Amsterdam avenue.

This news upset Capt. Gibson, and he started an investigation, which may lead to the dismissal of a driver attached to Stable K, No. 22, West Seventy-sixth street. This driver drew his pay to-day and drove away with his wagon to go over his regular route. The driver was traced to Amsterdam avenue and Sixty-sixth street. Here he left the wagon and has not been found since.

After the wagon had been standing there an hour, several mischievous boys unhampered the city horse from the yellow cart, and one, more daring than the rest, climbed upon his back and soon was trotting the animal up and down Sixty-sixth street, with an occasional chase away, a new driver hurried to the scene. The boys were called for.

Cap. Gibson hurried a man from the stable to the scene. The boys were called for and the wagon was driven away and a search instituted in nearby saloons for the missing driver.

MADINE NOT IN PLAY.

Hattie Witness, It Is Said, Will Remain in Pittsburgh.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 5.—Tom Madine, the celebrated Hattie witness, who has been written around the case, Madine was booked to appear in court to-day, but the detective employed at the Perkins agency, who have been watching Madine, managed to keep him in seclusion.

Madine refuses to discuss any plans for the future.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Can You?

It is a matter each individual must decide for himself. He can be a leader and semi-rogue if he will or he can go along through life a drugged clown, a cheap, heavier of wood or carrier of water.

Certain it is that while the Great Father of us all does not seem to "mind" if some of his children are foolish and stupid, he seems to select others (perhaps those he intends for some special work) and allows them to be thrashed and castigated most fearfully by certain "levellers."

If a man tries flitting with these levellers awhile, and gets a few slaps as a hint, he had better take the hint or a good solid blow will follow.

And what are these "levellers"? With many the leveller that keeps him or her back is just plain, old-fashioned coffee when it weakens heart, destroys digestion or sets up any one of the many forms of disease directly traceable to it.

When a man tries to live upright, clean, thrifty, sober and undrugged, manifesting as near as he knows what the Creator intends he should, happiness, health and peace seem to come to him. Does it pay?

This article was written to set people thinking, to rouse the "God-within" for every highly organized man and woman have times when they feel a something calling from within for them to press to the front and "be about the Father's business" don't mistake it! The spark of the Infinite is there, and it pays in every way, health, happiness, peace and even worldly prosperity, to break off the habits and strip clean for the work cut out for it. If, therefore, one would be properly equipped for the "business," whatever that may be, and coffee is shown to be the enemy in disguise, it pays to quit and use the food coffee—Postum—the reformation is sure and easily established.

DISASTERS BARELY BURNED AS GAS FRED DRESSES

Dretta Dillan's Injuries Probably Fatal; Sister Will Recover.

Dretta Dillan, a pretty telephone operator, was probably fatally burned at her home, No. 118 West Ninetieth street, to-day by accidentally brushing her dress against the flame of a gas stove. Should she recover she will be disfigured for life. Her sister Alice was seriously burned about the face, hands and breast in attempting to help her.

There are three Dillan girls—Alice, twenty-two years old; Dretta, nineteen, and Lizzie, seventeen. They are motherless, and Alice acts as housekeeper for her father, Howard Dillan, an insurance broker. The younger girls work in a telephone exchange, Dretta being employed at night.

When she got home to-day she put on a light gown and went to the kitchen for a cup of coffee. Alice had lit the small portable gas stove, placed it on a chair and left the room. A pot of coffee was simmering on the stove. Dretta started toward the ice-chest, and as she passed the gas stove her dress caught fire. In a moment she was all ablaze.

Her screams brought her sisters. Lizzie flamed and held helpless at the door. Alice dashed toward the burning girl, threw her down and began to tear the burning clothing from her.

The screams of the two girls attracted the attention of Policemen Seamon, Boehm and Riordan, who ran up to the door and found the girls in the door and discovered the terrible scene of the disaster.

The clothing of Alice was on fire, and but for the arrival of the police she too must have been frightfully disfigured. Alice was in a very serious condition. He hurried her to the hospital. Alice was treated at home.

TORTURED BY ITCHING SCALP

Eczema Broke Out Also on Hands and Limbs—Suffering Intense—Doctors Said Too Old to Be Cured—An Old Soldier of 80 Years Declares:

"CUTICURA TREATMENT IS A BLESSING"

"At all times and to all people I am willing to testify to the merits of Cuticura. It saved me from worse than the tortures of hell, about the year 1900, with itching on my scalp and temples, and afterwards it commenced to break out on my hands. Then it broke out on my limbs. I was advised to use salt and water, which I did, to no effect. I then went to a Surgeon, who commenced treating me with a wash of borax. This treatment did me no good, but rather aggravated the disease. I then told him I would go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could go anywhere, but a case of eczema like mine could not be cured; that I was too old (80). I went to an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and treated with him for six months, with little results. I had read of the Cuticura Remedies often. I was strongly tempted to give them a trial, so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent and continued taking the Resolvent until I had taken six bottles, stopping it to take the Pills. I was now getting better. I took two baths a day, and at night I let the lather of the Soap dry on. I used the Ointment with great effect after washing in warm water, to stop the itching at once. I am now cured."

"The Cuticura treatment is a blessing and should be used by every one who has itching of the skin. I can't say any more, and thank God that I have given the world such a curative. You can use this letter as you please. A very much befriended man, Wm. H. Gray, 3303 Mt. Vernon St., Philadelphia, Pa., August 2, 1905."
